Regression hypnotherapy allows the client to understand their soul mission, soul progress, soul relationships, and much more.

In 1997, Dr. Backman and her husband, Dr. Earl Backman, established

The Ravenheart Center, a Mystery School in Boulder, Colorado, dedicated to guiding individuals to discover their path as a soul.

Sedona Creative Life Center

We are all souls in the process of advancing or gaining wisdom as we move through each day, each week, and each year of our present lives. It is our nature to progress at the level of our soul. Have you wondered what the deeper reason for my life is today? What is written in my life plan, my life script, for this incarnation? Am I on track or off track? What have I learned in past lives that is related to experiences and details of my life today?

Each of us is guided by a team of wise teachers that we label as Guides, Elders, and Masters. Even though we may not recognize they are present, we do have daily access to our team. These wise teachers guide us both during our lives, and during the time between lives when we are pure spirit, pure soul energy. Using all aspects of our intuition, including vision, hearing, emotion and knowing, this workshop will assist you to discover which of your spiritual senses are the strongest.

This workshop will offer you time to go deep to discover more about your past lives. You will experience a guided regression into one of your past lives. Upon the final day of the past life you'll be guided to meet with one or more of your wise teachers to give you direction in your present life. You will have the opportunity to ask questions of your wise teachers to receive intuitive guidance about who you are as a soul, and what is the purpose of your present life.

Seating is limited to 60 participants. Tickets: $125.00
