Chet Snow, Ph.D., is an internationally-acclaimed author, lecturer and regression therapist with degrees from Columbia University and the Sorbonne in Paris. His wife, Kallista, from France, has studied yoga, reflexology, therapeutic massage and mediation. Having met initially in Paris in 1985, they were brought together as a couple in December 1991 by Mother Meera, their spiritual mentor, a master (Avatar) now living near Frankfurt. Since 1994 they have lived in Sedona, Arizona, long recognized as sacred land by Native Americans. Their Sedona house, built by members of the White [Healing] Lodge of England, was once home to Hopi spiritual leader, White Bear.

With Mother Meera's permission, Chet and Kallista organized their first "sacred journey" for a group of ten to Germany to receive her "darshan" [blessing] in June 1997. The following summer they added a small-group trip to England to explore the mysterious crop circles appearing there for the last two decades as well as ancient sacred sites such as Stonehenge and nearby Salisbury cathedral. In September 2000 they hosted a 10-day pilgrimage to Provence and Languedoc, Kallista's former home, with Barbara Marciniak and 13 special people to explore the mysteries of the Cathars, Mary Magdalene and Holy Grail. Each summer they lead a small-group tour to the English crop circles.

Over a decade ago, Chet Snow authored Mass Dreams of the Future based on Helen Wambach's pioneering concept of "future-life progressions." He has also authored a guided meditation audio cassette, Transformational Journeys, and two videos: Earth Shift and Star Visions, a history of the crop circle enigma. In 1993 he helped Dr. Winifred Lucas with The Handbook of Regression Therapy, widely considered the most serious textbook in the field. Chet has given more than 500 past-and future-life lectures and seminars in English, French and Spanish on three continents, including a lecture at the United Nations in 1994. He has also been featured on Sightings, the Art Bell Show and NBC's Ancient Prophecies, as well as in several documentary films.

Dr. Snow is former president of the Association for Past-Life Research & Therapies, a group of about 1,000 therapists world-wide. He also edits the annual Mass Dreams Newsletter, updating his future predictions. Since February, 1998, he and Kallista have organized and hosted several international conferences in Sedona.

Tour Itinerary

Day 1 November 7: Arrival Merida Mexico (D), transfer to the hotel by Tiera Maya tours. Group Welcome orientation dinner with Chet and Kallista. Please plan to arrive in Merida Mexico in time for the welcome dinner at 6:00 pm on November 7, 2010. Overnight Hotel Casa del Balam Merida

Day 2 November 8: Day excursion to Uxmal and Kabah (B/D) Visit the ruins of Uxmal, the greatest metropolitian and religious center in the Puuc hills of the Yucatán. Afternoon visit Kabah, which was connected by a stone causeway or "sac-be" and competes with its larger city in the majesty and beauty of its palace facades Overnight Hotel Casa del Balam Merida

Day 3 November 9: (B/D) Day excursion to Mayan site Dzibilchaltun, one of the major centers of the Mayan culture in Yucatan and of the peninsula as a whole. It was discovered some years after Chichen Itza and Uxmal, however some of the structures date back to 500 BC. Many of the structures found at Dzibilchaltun were built using the "Green Masonry" method, in which the stones are held together by chocks and mortar. The vaults were constructed using the overhanging stones method. The facades were decorated with modeled plaster. Overnight Hotel Casa del Balam Merida

Day 4 November 10: (B/D) Transfer to Chichen Itza. Visit Chichen Itza with the great Mayan ceremonial centers. Experience the powerful energies of the world-famous "El Castillo," the Temple of Kukulcan and other temples at the site. Return for the evening sound and light show. Overnight Mayaland Hotel.

Day 5 November 11z: (B/D) Visit Chitzen Itza B/D
More time to explore the ruins, visit the Cenote and learn about the underground waterway systems of the Yucatan. In the afternoon our group will have private entrance to the hall of mirrors for meditation and reflection. Overnight Mayaland Hotel.

Day 6 November 12: (B/D) Transfer to Coba
Cobá is beautiful and mysterious. A visit here requires some effort but is very worthwhile. Its name means "ruffled waters," derived from the five lakes in the vicinity, and it is one of the oldest Mayan settlements on the peninsula. It also has the highest pyramid in the area and the greatest concentration of sacbeob (Mayan roads constructed from stone), both of which suggest a major city, yet the ruins were not discovered until the late 19th century. Even today, only a small fraction of the many structures in this vast site have been excavated and this, together with the remoteness and jungle setting, contribute to the feeling of exploring new ground. Transfer to Coba and Tulum overnight at all-inclusive Resort Barcelo Maya Beach, Riviera Maya.

Day 7 November 13: Excursion to Delphinus Water Park (B/L/D) to swim with the dolphins. Return to the hotel and enjoy a relaxing afternoon at the resort. Final night dinner and ceremony in the hotel with Chet and Kallista. All-inclusive Resort Barcelo Maya Beach, Riviera Maya.

Day 8 November 14: Transfer Cancun airport.
