In conjunction with Stellar Productions Healthy Living Aging with Grace Conference, (www.scottsdalehealthyliving.com) actress and writer Brenda Adelman brings her thought-provoking one-woman play MY BROOKLYN HAMLET to Scottsdale. Just back from New York City, Adelman performed her show at the first annual UNTIL THE VIOLENCE STOPS:NYC festival, which was conceived by playwright Eve Ensler. Ensler authored THE VAGINA MONOLOGUES and heads V-Day, the worldwide movement to raise awareness and stop violence against women and girls.

MY BROOKLYN HAMLET is based on Brenda's life growing up in Brooklyn with a Jewish 'guido' Dad and a bohemian artist Mom. Big characters. Big laughs. Then ten years ago Brenda's father shot and killed her mother and married her aunt. The show is filled with heart, humor and triumph. Brenda will follow the production with a brief question and answer session. For more information visit www.brendaadelman.com
